VENDOR OF THE MONTH

In a charming neighborhood of Austin called Oak Hill, you'll find the famous Buddha's Brew Kombucha. Their unique brewing process involves traditional fermentation methods that are as wild as the greenbelt and creek in their backyard.

The team at Buddha's Brew Kombucha is committed to crafting authentic kombucha using living culture strains, which are bottled raw to preserve their natural goodness. Interestingly, one of their live cultures comes from the native grapevines growing alongside their brewery.
